

Retirement Loan Education

While employed by the company sponsoring your retirement plan, you may be eligible to take a loan from your account. Like a loan that you might obtain from your local bank, taking a loan from your retirement account means that you are borrowing money to be paid back, with interest, over a set period of time. Watch this video to learn more.