

Are Cosmetic Procedures Eligible?

Generally cosmetic procedures (such as Botox treatment, teeth whitening, etc.) are ineligible. However, if treatment is needed due to a medical condition, then the expense may be considered eligible. A letter will be required from a doctor stating the medical condition and the medical necessity for such treatment.
